THE HEART OF NORTHERN LAOS

Welcome

to Muang Xay town (also known as Oudomxay) the capital of the multiethnic Province of Oudomxay situated in the Nam Ko basin and surrounded by scenic mountains. The town is formed by small villages at an important point of intersection in Northern Laos. The proximity to China, Vietnam and the multiethnic influence make the dynamic center of Muang Xay unique from other towns in the region. However, in the side streets the relaxed Lao life continues and there are many interesting things for you to discover.
